AMERICAN CREWS TRAINING FOR INTERNATIONAL REGATTA

Eight and Four Practicing 89TH DIVISION Daily on Seine for Race April 27

GALE MAY BE COXSWAIN

California Crews Believed to Be Best Man for Job

American rowing stars are developing a sturdy stroke in the daily workouts on the Seine near Asnéres in training for the series of aquatic events that will be a part of the spring athletic program of the A.E.F. The men, under Capt. C. D. Wiman, Yalevarsity '15, are gnooming themselves carry to be in shape for the 2,500 meter eight-cared race to be held by the Rowing Cub of France, April 27.

Yesterday two Yankee boats were cutting through the Seine, an eight and a four-cared craft. It is expected that with four-oared craft. It is expected that with ill have arrived in Paris to fill two cight ared boats and then the training will be stiffened.

For the French race, which will be an Arm Inter-Allied affair, with crows from seven countries, the men are using the off-center lack sliding seats, lapstreak barge, with Belgian tholes. This boat is heavier than the fa illiar shell used by English and American ews, but before the day of the race th rews, but before the day of the race the mercian carsmon expect to have accussioned themselves to the new conditional rows of Americans, French, English, Australians, Portuguese, Canadians and New calanders will be entered.

The race will be pulled down stream and nder two bridges, the Pont Royal and the out de l'Alma, which is certain to make spectacular as only two boats can pass rough an arch at the same time, and the bridge has but three arches. In the rotation of the same time, and the distribution of the same time, and the bridge that the determine which craft will be to unlicky one to trail under the first diags.

Former Pilot of University of "Potsy" Clark Individual Star of Sensational Pigskin Battle turesque setting the 89th Division, Third Army, defeated the 36th Division, First Army, for the football championship of the A.E.F. at the Parc des Princes, Paris Saturday, 14 to 6.

to finish with "Potsy" Clark, the Third Army's left halfback, playing the stellar Clark must have thought he was role. Clark must have thought be war-back at the University of Illinois where he made intercollegiate football history. He-scored both touchdowns and kicked both goals for his team and otherwise proved he is still the "Potsy" of old. Clark's most sensational performance war-a 65-yard dash down the field for a touch-down. Earlier in the game he had crossed the 36th Division's goal line when he pulled off a triple pass with Gerbardt and Lind-sey.

Gerhardt Runs Team Well

Gerhardt Runs Team Well

Gerhardt ran the 89th Division team like checkwork. He appeared confident of victory and faded to get rattled when the 26th opened hoesidites by grabbing a six-point lead. His confidence had its effect on the rest of the tesm and the men from the Ribine went about their work with a dash and spirit worthy of the beat traditions of the American Atiny.

As in previous games, the 50th grew stronger as the contest progressed, and after the first ball consistently outplayed their opponents.

Malayed and Lookabaugh, the two indian stars of the First Army, were constantly in the limelial. Malayed consistently and the production of the first ball consistently subject on the offensive, and with Lookabaugh noved a very dangerous ground-galier on the offensive.
